Nova T. Games is a small but dedicated game development team that work in various genres and styles.

Nova T. Games is dedicated to providing fun and interesting gaming experiences. Our team is full of passionate people experienced in game design, audio, and art, ready to share our visions with the world. We believe that making sure a game is fun to play comes before all else. We are also committed to maintaining contact between the player and the developer, as we believe that this connection is integral to creating quality products.
